

Mum is Busy

Today is Monday. Mum is in the office. She is busy. She feels tired. I help Mum with the housework.

First, I cook lunch for her. I cook a fried egg. Also, I cook macaroni and cheese. It is yummy! Then, I do the household chores.

Next, I fold the clothes and wash the clothes. Then, I make the bed.

After that, I pick up the toys and put them away. In the end, I water the plants.

Finally, Mum finishes her work. Mum is happy but tired. She says, 'Wow! You are so helpful. You are a good boy.' I feel proud of myself.
